G. Rainey Williams, M.D.
The John A. Schilling Professor and Chair
Department of Surgery
University of Oklahoma College of Medicine

The fourth G. Rainey Williams Surgical Symposium will focus on the review of current concepts in Gastrointestinal Surgery, Surgical Oncology, Trauma and Vascular Surgery. We will also examine socioeconomic issues including peer review, surgical manpower and training, and practice management. Case presentations and discussion sessions will allow for interaction between the symposium participants and the guest faculty.

The headquarters hotel will again be the Waterford Hotel. The hotel complex includes fine restaurants and recreational facilities. Transportation to and from the hotel to the Health Sciences Center to attend the scientific sessions will be provided each day. The Friday evening banquet will be held at the Waterford. Dr. Edward N. Brandt, Jr., the new Executive Dean of the College of Medicine, will make brief after dinner remarks with entertainment to follow.

Again this year, the annual meetings of the Oklahoma Chapter of the American College of Surgeons and the University of Oklahoma Surgical Society (founded in 1984 by former residents of the University of Oklahoma General Surgery residency program and former faculty of the Department of Surgery) will be held in conjunction with the symposium. The Oklahoma Chapter of the American College of Surgeons will have a luncheon and business meeting at noon on Friday at the Health Sciences Center Library. The University of Oklahoma Surgical Society will have a cocktail party for former residents and faculty on Wednesday evening at the Waterford and a breakfast and business meeting on Saturday morning at the Lawson Center, Presbyterian Hospital.

The symposium will combine an excellent scientific program with a pleasant social experience for physicians throughout the Southwest. It will also provide a special opportunity for former residents and faculty to return to the campus.
