- Be aware of molecular biology and its influence on surgical care.

In 1958, Dr. G. Rainey Williams joined the University of Oklahoma surgical faculty and succeeded Dr. John Schilling as chairman in 1974. He served with distinction until ill health forced his retirement in 1996. Dr. Williams left a heritage of surgical excellence and commitment which has influenced multiple generations of medical students and surgeons. The Tenth G. Rainey Williams Surgical Symposium honors the memory and heritage of Dr. Williams and his lifelong commitment to surgical excellence.

The symposium will take place at The Waterford Marriott Hotel and the University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Center Robert M. Bird Library. Ample time is planned for renewing old acquaintances.

The scientific portion of the symposium will focus on the practical aspects and recent developments in surgical practice and will be presented by nationally recognized authorities and distinguished local faculty members.

Dr. Ronald Elkins will give The Third G. Rainey Williams Lecture on Saturday morning, September 22.

In conjunction with the Irwin H. Brown Office of Continuing Medical Education at the University of Oklahoma, The Tenth G. Rainey Williams Surgical Symposium has been designated for up to 14 hours in Category I CME credit.

In addition the Annual Meeting of the Oklahoma Chapter of the American College of Surgeons and the Biennial Meeting of the University of Oklahoma Surgical Society will be held in conjunction with the Symposium. The ACS will have a luncheon and business meeting at noon on Friday at The Waterford Marriott Hotel. The UOSS will host a cocktail reception on Wednesday evening and will have a breakfast business meeting on Saturday morning at The Waterford Marriott Hotel.
