

MD Curriculum (Class of 2022)
The University of Oklahoma College of Medicine

Revised 10/11/2017

NOTE: The curriculum is subject to change.

Fall				Spring
First Year	Prologue (Orientation)	Molecular & Cellular Systems	Human Structure	Winter Break	Immunology, Microbiology, & Integument	Blood, Hematopoiesis & Lymphatics	Gastro-intestinal & Hepatobiliary	Endocrinology, Metabolism and Nutritional Biochemistry
		Clinical Medicine I			Clinical Medicine I
		Patients, Physicians and Society I			Patients, Physicians and Society I
		Design and Analysis of Clinical Research			Design and Analysis of Clinical Research
Second Year	Clinical Transitions (MS3 Orientation)	Cardiovascular, Respiratory & Renal Systems	Neurosciences	Winter Break	Reproduction	Joint, Skin and Bone	MS2 Capstone
		Clinical Medicine II			Clinical Medicine II
		Patients, Physicians and Society II: Clinical Ethics
		Electives (Enrichment Program)
Third Year*	Medicine Clerkship – 8 weeks
	Surgery Clerkship – 8 weeks
	Obstetrics & Gynecology Clerkship – 6 weeks
	Pediatrics Clerkship – 6 weeks
	Psychiatry Clerkship – 6 weeks
	Family Medicine Clerkship – 4 weeks
	Neurology Clerkship – 4 weeks
	Selectives – 6 weeks
Medical Student Academy (Tulsa SCM)
 Selectives = Students must take three two-week rotations chosen from anesthesiology, dermatology, emergency medicine, neurosurgery, ophthalmology, pathology, otorhinolaryngology, orthopedic surgery, radiation oncology, diagnostic radiology, or urology (subject to availability; SCM selectives may vary).
Fourth Year*	Geriatrics Clerkship – 4 weeks
	Electives – 26 weeks (including a 4-week approved Sub-Internship Elective)
	MSIV Capstone Course – 4 weeks

*The Clinical Curriculum is subject to change.